

ACHIEVE OPTIMAL WELLNESS

COMMITMENT

Stay committed to your wellness by allowing the time necessary for the system to take effect. We recommend scheduling monthly assessments with your practitioner.

TIME

While many experience almost immediate benefits, it can take time to clear Body-Field distortions that have built up over time.

TOTAL WELLNESS

While following your recommended NES Health™ Infoceutical solutions protocol, it is equally essential to assess your diet and lifestyle.

- Optimize nutrition
- Include proper exercise (30 minutes every day)
- Lower stress levels
- Reduce toxin exposure

Since Peter Fraser's revolutionary discovery and mapping of the Human Body-Field, NES Health has led the field of bioenergetics, supporting individuals worldwide by supporting their health and wellbeing.

The Body-Field represents the general state of your overall physical and emotional condition. Distortions in this field can cause disharmony in your life. Corrections of these distortions support and encourage a balanced, enjoyable, and rich life experience.
